LawTunes: The Perfect Gift for the Lawyer Who Has Everything?

While these guys probably won't be giving up their day jobs anytime soon, this new "allegedly-humorous, lawyer-created, law-related" CD entitled "The LawTunes: Live at Blackacre" is unquestionably unique. Part of the "LawTunes Jury Boxed Set," the CD includes such titles as "Livin' Life in Six Minutes," "(She's) an Electronic Discovery," "Lawyers' Blood is Typo," and "Orderin' In," all written, recorded and produced by a NYC-based "practicing (so to speak) litigation attorney" named Larry Savell. The CD is dedicated to the idea that "a healthy willingness of lawyers to poke fun at themselves" is a good thing. We couldn't agree more.
