Just in time: The LawTunes holiday CD

New York lawyer Lawrence Savell has released his latest CD of holiday songs for lawyers, "You Don't Wanna Cross Santa." This is Savell's third compilation of humorous, holiday rock-and-roll songs, all composed, performed and produced by him. You can find them all through his Web site, LawTunes.

On this latest release, the title track details the potential pitfalls of an aggressive litigation strategy against St. Nick come Dec. 25. Another song, "Billin' on Christmas Eve," is described as a ballad that will ring true to anyone who makes sacrifices for the sake of their career.

I wrote about Savell last year in my article, Laughing at Lawyers and the Law.
