

WITH ALL DUE RESPECT?

Enjoy laughing at the failings, foibles and faux pas of others? Of course you do. Then why not contribute to WADR? By email to wadr@liv.asn.au, by fax on 9607 9451 or by mail C/- The LJ, 470 Bourke Street, Melbourne 3000.

SONG COMP

Like most lawyers your Christmas shopping is probably still on the "to do" list.

If you are looking for something special for a colleague, or if you have been dobbed into the dreaded Kris Kringle, WADR has a solution for you.

US attorney Lawrence Savell has released his fourth album full of law-themed holiday tunes and it's a certain solicitor Christmas pleaser.

The Lawtunes: Live at Blackacre features hits like "(She's An) Electronic Discovery", "Lawyers' Blood is Typo", and "Livin' Life in Six Minutes".

The album's final track "Santa's GC" kicks off with lyrics that might ring true:

*"After 10 long years working at a firm
Caught 'change-of-venue'-itis
and I started to squirm
Got a headhunter call, said the job was 'up North'
With my insulated laptop back I bravely set forth
The CEO was friendly; and I'd say clearly well-read
And his dimensions made it clear that I'd be well fed.
Look at me I'm Santa's GC
Could I be in any better company?"*

WADR has two copies of the sought after CD to give away.

To win, email your best legal related Christmas song title to wadr@liv.asn.au, fax 9607 9451 or mail C/- The LJ, 470 Bourke Street, Melbourne 3000.

To hear fragments of the songs or to buy the CD visit www.lawtunes.com.