

SUPREME COURT OF HABITATION APPEAL
COUNTY OF WESTCHESTER

----- x
IN THE MATTER OF CATHERINE : NOTICE OF MOTION
AND LAWRENCE SAVELL, : FOR CHANGE OF VENUE
:
Movants. :
----- x

Come (actually, go) now moving parties Catherine and Lawrence Savell (hereafter "Movants") and hereby advise this distinguished tribunal that Movants have removed themselves to the abovementioned jurisdiction. In anticipation of a demand for particulars, Movants affirmatively declare that their and their chattels' new principal place of residence is herewith hereto:

[CONFIDENTIAL: FILED UNDER SEAL WITH COURT]

As the indicated address is a newly-built structure, this document additionally constitutes constructive notice. See Spender on Bankruptcy (Final Ed.) (citing U.S. v. Countless Realtors, Builders, Electricians, Painters and (in anticipation of palatable landscaping) Does 1-20, 86 C.D. Acct. 1-2-3 (2000).

Invoking the doctrine of exhaustion, coupled with overbreadth, and with a fervent prayer for relief, further Movants sayeth (and moveth) not.

Dated: February 11, 2000

Respectfully Submitted,
Van Fuller Chatchkas
Van Fuller Chatchkas, Esq.
Packer, Schlepper & Schvitzer, Lbs.
In-House Counsel for Movants