EVENT DETAIL

Careers in First Amendment and Media Law

Tuesday, February 20, 2007 7 pm

This presentation will explore the legal intricacies and First Amendment implications of newsgathering and dissemination. Panelists will discuss current developments in the field and will participate in a question-and-answer session with attendees. Discussions will focus on reporters' access issues, defending libel and privacy claims, and prepublication review.

MODERATOR:

David E. McCraw,
Vice President and Assistant General Counsel of The New York Times Company.

PANELISTS:

Stephanie S. Abrutyn,
Senior Counsel, Litigation, at Home Box Office, Inc. (HBO)

Jonathan Donnellan,
Senior Counsel at Hearst Corporation

Lynn Oberlander,
General Counsel of The New Yorker

Lawrence Savell,
Counsel, Chadbourne & Parke LLP

Sponsored by:

The Committee on Law Student Perspectives
Derryl Zimmerman, Chair

All law school students and legal community invited. No fee is required. A networking reception will follow. Refreshments will be served.

Please RSVP at lsprsvp@aol.com.
